OLD ENGLAND.

By ARGUS CENTOCULI, Inſpector-General of Great-Britain.

SATURDAY, JULY 18, 1747. [N°. 168.]

O mihi præteritos referat ſi Jupiter annos. VIRG.

HAVE we borne the Burden of immoderate Taxes, have our Expectations been raiſed, and our Hopes flatter'd, for nothing but a Defeat at laſt? How have we been amuſed and mocked all the Spring of the Year, and our Preparations exaggerated, for this mighty Campaign? The gallant Duke's Genius for War was to be equally ſupported, to give the Laurels of Culloden new Verdure upon the Meuſe. We ſaw Regiment after Regiment tranſported to the Continent, 'till the Nation became drain'd of almoſt all her Troops, even to the very Guards. We were made to believe that the Duke had taken the Field at the Head of 120000 Men, which, being greatly ſuperior to the Enemy, they could do nothing elſe but lurk in Trenches, and become impotent Spectators of the Allies over-running all their Conqueſts in the two preceding Campaigns: Antwerp was to be firſt attack'd and taken with Vigor, and then Town after Town was to fall in at the Approach of our Arms; while the mortified Marſhal Saxe would have ſufficient Work upon his Hands to guard the Frontiers of his more mortified Maſter.

Thus the Friends of the Coalition talk'd, printed, and publiſh'd, and were ſo ſhameleſs in their Aſſertions, that they perſiſted in it to the laſt, notwithſtanding the long Inactivity of the Allies, which they pretended was owing to the Enemies covering themſelves with innacceſſible Works, that could not be attack'd without a great Inequality and manifeſt Danger; and as the Taking of Towns by Sieges was decried as a tedious and expenſive Work, we were told, that by one ſucceſsful Battle we ſhould not only deſtroy the Enemy more effectually, but the Towns would fall in of Courſe, and court the Conqueror; and thus we were to regain all Flanders.

Notwithſtanding theſe high-flown Rodomontades, Men of Senſe and Obſervation ſaw they were only calculated to amuſe the Vulgar, and prepare their Necks for the Yoke which was meditating for them, by the late Attack upon their Liberties, in order to ſmooth the Brow of Conteſt, and render Corruption more acceſſible.—They ſaw thro' the Veil of Diſguiſe, the Duke's Diſappointment and Mortification, how ill he was ſupported, and the impending Blow inevitably attending the Allies thro' their own Weakneſs, and the unequal Force and Circumſpection of the Enemy; who, with a ſeeming Inattention, waited only for a lucky Opportunity to pour in their Numbers upon us at a Diſadvantage; which at laſt preſented itſelf unto them, and drew on the fatal Day at the Village of Val; or at whatever other Place, after a Compoſure of Mind and Deliberation, the Action ſhall be fix'd at, or denominated by; where the Enemy took their Meaſures and laid out their Ground ſo well, as render'd more than half our Army, unequal as it was, uſeleſs, while the general Communication in their own was free and open, and their Front acceſſible to new Supplies, ſo as that one Body of Men was no ſooner repulſed than they were replac'd by another: Their Reſources were inexhauſtible, and every Attack put on a new Face, while his Majeſty's Royal and Electoral Troops on the Left, combin'd as it were in a glorious Obſtinacy, maintained their Ground, tho' unſupplied, againſt both freſh and unequal Numbers, 'till Marſhal Saxe call'd in his Reſerve to his Aſſiſtance, and, changing his Diſpoſition, complimented his old Friends and our good Allies with an Attack upon the Center: They received this Salute, no doubt, as he expected, and ſhew'd their Reſpect to his Arms, by not only retiring before them, but by doing even his own Buſineſs for him, in overthrowing no leſs than five Battalions (of Auſtrians I ſuppoſe) which were coming from the Right to the Aſſiſtance of our Left Wing, who, drench'd in Blood and Slaughter, were ſtill bravely fighting againſt odds, and with this Supply would inevitably have crown'd the great Buſineſs of the Day with Glory and Succeſs.

Curſe on their daſtard Souls, for they ran before they felt the Foe! and were ſo bent upon Flight, that all the Endeavours of the Duke, and one of their own ſuperior Officers, to rally them, were in vain: The Enemy took the Time, fill'd up the Void between our Right and Left, and cut off their Communication; whereby they might have, in a great Meaſure, deſtroy'd both, or at leaſt have made ſecure of one. It is no difficult Matter for any Man capable of Reflection, tho' unus'd to Armies, to figure out in his Mind the Confuſion and Havock that follow'd, more eſpecially in the Left Wing, who became expoſed in Flank to the Enemy by this diſaſtrous Deſertion of our good Allies, on their own Frontiers, and in Defence of their own Country; and yet, 'tis ſaid, we loſt fewer Men than the Enemy!

I could not forbear, upon a former Occaſion, lamenting our Misfortune in having any Connection with a People of their ſlow, flegmatic, and ſelf-intereſted Diſpoſition; of whoſe Fidelity or Gratitude we could never boaſt, tho' they owe their very Being as a Republic to our Aſſiſtance: 'Tis for them we laviſh'd away ſo much Blood and Treaſure in the late War, and procur'd a Barrier, Proof againſt every Thing but Treachery and their own national Avarice: 'Tis in Support of that very Barrier that we engag'd in the bloody Battle of Fontenoy, where they gave a ſignal Inſtance of their natural Propenſion for Self-Preſervation, in a timely Retreat from Danger and Glory: 'Tis on that Occaſion we find them, by their Ambaſſador, complimenting the Enemy, in a ſet Speech on his Victory and Triumph over their own Barrier: 'Tis theſe very People, who ſold away to the Enemy the very Proviſions which were contracted for and aſſign'd to our Army, then almoſt ſtarv'd for Want of them: 'Tis for them we ſav'd Zealand but the other Day, and would have relieved Huſt, were they not too prompt in giving it up, after the Governor of the Place had declar'd it impregnable, and amus'd the Duke almoſt into the Hands of the Enemy; which tho', by the Interpoſition of Providence, he very narrowly eſcap'd, yet three of our beſt Regiments were barbarouſly ſacrificed in a generous Attempt to ſave them, as they had no other Notice that the Friends they were going to relieve had been replac'd by the Enemy, than by a general Volly from their Muſquetry, after they had march'd up to their very Muzzles; and yet that very Governor, who gave up his Honour and this impregnable Fortreſs together, remains ſtill unſhot as well as untried: 'Tis to theſe People's Inſincerity the Duke of Marlborough ow'd ſo many fair Occaſions loſt of giving the Enemy Battle in the firſt Years of his Command: 'Tis to their clandeſtine Treating with the Enemy, ſeparate from the reſt of the Allies in that War, is owing the firſt Miſtruſt that got in among them; and, conſequently, our running ſo raſhly into the Peace of Utrecht: And, laſtly, we are told, 'tis to pleaſure them we owe the Attack made upon our Conſtitution, in the ever-memorable Diſſolution of our laſt Parliament.

Theſe Matters are of too ſerious a Nature to be trifled with. Confidence ſeems to be abſolutely loſt between them and us; our brave Troops will be ever ſuſpicious of their Conduct, as they can't well rely on their co-operating with them after having thus deſerted them twice: This will diſpirit them in the Midſt of Battle, and check them even in the Sight of Victory; leſt, in their Advances, they ſhould not be properly ſuſtain'd, and their Rear or Flanks left expos'd to a Surprize from the Enemy.

'Tis notorious the French make a Maxim always of magnifying the Loſs of their Enemy, and leſſening that of their own; and therefore 'tis no Wonder to find in their Accounts, that they have given us a total Defeat at Val, with the Loſs of our Cannon and Baggage, and 14000 Men ſlain. I mean not their mutulated Accounts which come by the Way of Holland.—Their proud Encampment on the Field of Battle chagrines me much: 'Tis an unſufferable Inſult upon us, and an indelible Mark of Triumph. I could wiſh we were altogether free from that Faculty of enlarging and diminiſhing Tranſactions which we decry in the French. I have ſome Reaſon to ſuſpect the Veracity of the Accounts which has been publiſh'd by Authority, as the laſt ſeems in no wiſe to coincide with the firſt; inſomuch, that they require to be read with Attention to find out they relate to one and the ſame Action. 'Tis needleſs to point out the Variances between them, as they are obvious to every Reader: But I can't forbear looking upon the laſt as an Appeal from the Secretary frighten'd out of his Wits, to the Secretary more compos'd and better inſtructed: I doubt he is not over-ſkill'd in drawing up military Memoirs, and that he has not been a little oblig'd to the General Officers for Aſſiſtance in his amended Account, particularly ſo far as relates to themſelves. Some Particulars I find muſt be taken in a qualified Senſe: Such as that, where Mention is made that Prince Waldeck was at the the Head of his Corps the whole Day; that is, I ſuppoſe, before they ran away, notwithſtanding that there is no Mention made of his aſſiſting the active Duke and Cannenberg in endeavouring to rally them: Such too is that, where Ligonier is mentioned to have charg'd with that Skill and Spirit as to be made a Priſoner: Such alſo is that, where the Behaviour of four certain General Officers is ſaid to want no Words to ſet it off; for I doubt the Writer meant, he wanted Words to do it Juſtice. But I am apt to believe the Coolneſs of the Prince of Heſſe wants no Qualification, as Coolneſs is his very Characteriſtic both abroad and at home.

I hope in the Enumeration of our kill'd, wounded, and miſſing Men, our Hiſtorian has not omitted the Figure of 1 before the 4000 l. ſince that would tally too well with the French Accounts. But is it not very ſtrange, that in no leſs than three different abſurd and contradictory Accounts, Mr. Secretary has not been able to fix the Scene of this bloody Rencontre! In his firſt, we are to underſtand it was the Action of Keſſelt; in his ſecond, that of Val; and the Dutch fix it at Lavel. Theſe Variations and Contrarieties plainly indicate Mr. Secretary's Inaccuracy, and the ill Communication he keeps with that Part of the Country; or at leaſt the great Effect which the Conſequence of that fatal Day has had upon his Faculties, even ſo far as to render him unequal to the Charge of his Office.

But tho' theſe two different Accounts are very confuſed, yet the Coalition, which has been form'd out of Confuſion and subsist by it, had the Art to invert the Disaster abroad to serve a necessary Purpose at home: The first Account had like to have overthrown their Interest in more Elections than in that of Westminster, 'till the last came to their Relief, and gave a lucky Opportunity to spread about a Report of a second Action in Flanders, wherein we had kill'd no less than 10000 of the Enemy, and done other proportionable Feats suitable to the great Occasion. This regain'd the revolted Mob to the Court-Side of the Question. The like Report hath been since renew'd, and operated with some Success towards Staffordshire against the new Country Jacobites, in Favour of an old Jacobus Court-Family of great Distinction, who labour'd under a dangerous Blindness from their Birth, 'till by the Skill and Dexterity of Gentleman Harry, not only their Eyes were made to see, but their Minds to coalize, in Conformity to the Extent of their Ken.

That the valiant Duke has acquitted himself with Honour is acknowledg'd on all Sides, and that his brave Example has been well follow'd by all our General Officers; but who can stand against Numbers, Disadvantage of Ground, and Infidelity? What Man could do he bravely did! and tho' he gain'd not Conquest he well deserv'd it. Had he been at the Head of such a vast Army as the Friends of the Coalition assign'd him, instead of hearing of the fatal Rencontre at Val, and the taunting Sarcasms of Saxe on his distress'd Condition, his active Soul would have fought him out, and furnish'd us with a Day of Rejoicing much earlier in the Campaign, for a complete Victory: But, instead of 120000, his Army hardly made up 70000, and was inferior to that of the French by a Third. Thus was the Nation and the Duke equally deceiv'd and mortified! and thus our heavy Taxes, instead of supporting the War abroad and compleating the Army, are squander'd away in corrupt Measures at home, to establish the iniquitous Power of the Coalition for several Years longer.

To the AUTHOR, &c.

SIR,

HAVING lately seen the following Paragraph in a News Paper, "We hear from Seaford in Sussex, "that in order to settle the Right of Election in that Bo- "rough, the Returning Officer was attended IN COURT "by a Secretary of State, and the Chancellor of the Ex- "chequer; an Honour which highly flatter'd the Candi- "dates, as it convinc'd them these great Men (even in our "present Distress) thought their Presence more necessary "THERE, than in the Cabinet;" I at first gave little Credit to it, not believing it possible for ONE in so high a Station of Life, as a Secretary of State, to go into the Country to look after a little Borough, at the very Time we received the dismal News from our Army in Flanders. But, upon better Information, find HE was seen, two Days after, sitting next to the Returning Officer, accompanied by two other Peers and several Grandees, during the taking of the Poll at Seaford.

I am extremely surprized that a PERSON, who ought to know the Constitution of this Kingdom, could flatter himself, that so outrageous an Attack upon the Rights and Privileges of the Commons of Great Britain, could pass unobserv'd, when Peers, for Offences of a much less Nature, have not only been stigmatiz'd by the House of Commons with the strongest Votes, and the Elections made void, but the Crown even address'd to move them, both from their Councils, and all the Employments they enjoy'd under them; which the Crown was pleased to comply with, as appears by several Cases to be found in the Journals.

I am credibly informed, this Affair will, by Petition, be brought before the Parliament, (where other remarkable Transactions will be laid open.) Is it to be imagined there can be found a House of Commons, who will so far degenerate from the Spirit of their Predecessors, as to suffer this daring Attempt upon their Rights and Privileges to pass uncensured; and not exert themselves, and shew the utmost Resentment against those who would invade them, and bring Elections to be decided by so bare fac'd an Influence? An Influence that must put a Period to British Liberty, and make the Commons the most abject Slaves to the Peers! Can it therefore be doubted, as the Commons of England must call out for Justice upon so atrocious a Crime, but their Representatives will take Care that it meets with its DUE REWARD?

I shall now commend the Conduct of an honourable Candidate, who, I hear, behav'd with great Spirit, and desired the Returning Officer would not proceed in taking the Poll, 'till the Noble Personages then present withdrew; and insisted, that they ought not to remain in Court: But am astonish'd to find that this Motion was not seconded from the Bench, by the worthy Patriot, his Opponent.—He, who, on so many Occasions, has display'd his Oratory in Support of Liberty and Independency; — was the Scourge of Ministers, and Declaimer of all Influence! How it came to pass, that He should not tell them their Duty, and exert his Talents on this Occasion, in asserting the Rights and Privileges of the Commons, the Public will best judge!

What would not an Earl of Orford have heard from this Gentleman on such an Occasion? To whose Memory I must do the Justice to say, that during his long Administration, and the great Power he was possess'd of, he never attempted to exert it in the Manner taht has been made Use of in the Choice of this Parliament.

I am, SIR,
Your humble Servant,
A COMMONER.

Lately came on a Trial before the Lord Chief-Justice of the King's Bench at Westminster, in which his Majesty was Plaintiff, and one William Kell Defendant, grounded on a forfeited Recognizance, for that the said Kell having had Articles of the Peace exhibited against him by Elizabeth his Wife, for Barbarities committed by him on her, he was bound with Securities, in Michaelmas Term, 1744, in 400 l. that he should keep the Piece for one Year to all His Majesty's Subjects, but more especially to his said Wife: On which Trial it appeared, that he did in a very violent and Outrageous Manner, on Sunday the 11th of August, 1745, and before the said Year was expired, enter the Meeting-House at Stratford, where his said Wife Elizabeth than was, and there did, in Breach of his said Recognizance, commit an Assault ou his said Wife. After a very long Trial, the Jury went out for a small Time, and and then returned and brought in the said William Kell and his Sureties guilty of the Forfeiture of the said Recognizances.

Friday Se'nnight came on a Hearing at Doctors Commons, before the Worshipful Dr. Andrews, Chancellor of London on the Proceedings exhibited in that Court by Elizabeth Kell, in which she charges her said Husband of being guilty of Adultery, praying a Divorce from her said Husband; and after a Trial which lasted from Nine o'Clock in the Morning till Two in the Afternoon, the Facts being being clearly and unquestionably proved, the Court passed Sentence for a Divorce accordingly.

Mr. Justice Foster, went to the Court-House at St. Margaret's Hill, Southwark, on his Majesty's Commission for the Trial of the Rebels. Peter Theobald and Henry Hall, Esqrs. were also present. Æneas Macdonald, formerly a Banker at Paris, was brought to the Bar; and made an Affidavit, that some of his material Witnesses were in France, and others in the farthest Part of Scotland; and prayed that the Court would indulge him with two Months Time, in order to produce them; and that he could not, with Safety, proceed on his Trial without them. This was not granted by the Court; but he was directed to make an Affidavit, setting forth the Names of his Witnesses, and where they live. Then the Court adjourned to Yesterday, that he might have Time to prepare his Affidavit: Mr. Ford and Mr Jodrell were by the Court assigned his Counsel. The Event of the Trial we shall notice in our next.

On Wednesday an Order was sent from the Secretary of State's Office, to discharge out of the Prison of Lancaster all the Rebel Prisoners now in Custody, agreeable to his Majesty's Act of Grace.

Nine were cast for Transportation. And

Fourteen acquitted. And

Thursday the Sessions ended when nothing material happen'd, but John Cook, on receiving Sentence of Death, presented a Petition to the Court, setting forth, that he had sav'd the Lives of Thomas Mortimore, Thomas Hart, Thomas Moult, and five Dragoons; and an Affidavit of John Boulton was also produc'd, who swears, that in the Year 1744 he saved his Life too.

We hear that the late Czar, Peter the Great, having presented the University of Petersburgh with a noble Library, purchased at a great Expence, the Members of that Body, as yet in the Infancy of Learning, are so distressed with the Royal Munificence, that they have been forced to send for two Dutch Booksellers, to dispose the Books of the said Library into Classes, according to their respective Sciences.

The Leyden Gazette inform us, that his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland would not suffer any of the Officers under his Command to come over to England, in order to concern themselves in the Election.

Extract of a Letter from Berg-op-Zoom, July 22. N. S.

"The great Number of Bombs and red hot Balls which the French have thrown in the Town, have done considerable Mischief, such as demolishing the great Church, and other elevated Buildings; firing of Houses, and, by an unaccountable Neglect in not taking up the Pavement of the Streets, many People have been destroyed by the Bursting of the Bombs; but no extraordinary Progress has been thereby made towards taking the Place. The Town, which is one of the strongest Fortifications in Europe, is now evacuated of all useless Hands, and has a good Garrison in it; which will be the more likely to do its Duty, as his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange has order'd Promises to be made of extraordinary Rewards to those who behave well, and a Gallows (which is actually erected) for those who do otherwise. General Cronstrom had with him in the Lines near the Town fifteen thousand Men, and has been reinforced considerably from the Allied Army. As the Place cannot be taken without dislodging him, an Action seems to be unavoidable, which from the Ability and Integrity of this General, added to the Encouragement published amongst the Troops, we may hope will be in our Favour.

Extract of a private Letter from the Hague, dated July 21, N. S.

"We have certain Advices from the Allied Army, that an Express was gone from thence to London, with Overtures for a General Peace, which Overtures the King of France had ſent to his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland by Sir John Ligonier, whom the King always admitted to dine with him, placed him at his Right Hand, and often declared to him how deſirous he was of an Accommodation; aſſuring him at the ſame Time, that he thought nothing could add to his Reputation ſo much as the ſigning a general and laſting Peace with his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, at the Head of the two Armies, and doubted not but that it would ſoon be done."

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, July 9. Laſt Monday Morning, at Eight o'Clock, was reſumed, before the High Court of Juſticiary, the Tryal of David Edgar, formerly mentioned, for the alledged Murder of William Paiſly, Officer of the Cuſtoms at Carliſle, when a Proof was laid in Terms of the Interlocutor, which laſted till Eleven at Night; and the Evidence being ſummed up, in which the Councel for the Crown and Pannel diſtinguiſhed themſelves, the Jury incloſed and were appointed to return their Verdict on Tueſday, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon; which was accordingly done, finding the Pannel not guilty; whereupon he was diſmiſſed from the Bar.

Laſt Night Major-General Campbell arrived at his Lodgings in the Abbey of Holyrood-Houſe.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

ITALY.

Genoa, June 20. O. S. The Marquis de Tubin, in the Service of the King of Spain, died the 11th of laſt Month, of the Wound he received in the Action of the 2d. The 13th at Night, our Troops attack'd the Enemy at the Deſcent of Mount Faſcie, and obliged them to abandon ſeveral Poſts; but they being reinforced, repulſed our Troops in their Turn. The Chevalier Pinelli, who commanded, was wounded, and taken by the Auſtrians. The next Day his body was ſent back here, but without a Head. Don Auguſtin Aumada arriv'd here Yeſterday to command the Spaniſh Troops, in the room of the late Marquis de Tubin. The Duke de Boufflers is dead of the Small Pox. Veſſels continually arrive here with Troops and Proviſions. The Auſtrians have done nothing againſt our Outworks ſince the 14th.

Turin, June 26, O. S. The King is determin'd to make the Campaign, and his Equipages are getting ready accordingly, as are alſo thoſe of his Royal Highneſs. Letters from the Imperial Army adviſe, that the Piedmonteſe Troops, and part of the Auſtrians, are marching to join the King's Army. It's added that the Siege of Genoa is rais'd, but that the Town will be blocked up by a Remainder of the Imperial Troops.

Milan, June 27, O. S. In the Night between the 24th and 25th, Count Schulemburg having received Advice from Turin, that the taking of the Caſtle of Vintimiglia had obliged the King of Sardinia to recall his Troops commanded by General de la Rocque, he begun immediately to embark his Artillery and Ammunition, in order to ſend them to Savonna. The Allies are now able to draw together there an Army of 87 Battalions, and 62 Squadrons, which is thought to be alone ſufficient to ſtop the Progreſs of the French and Spaniards. It's ſaid that Part of the Troops will form a Cordon from Torazzo to St. Peter d'Arena, and that the Engliſh Fleet will continue to block up Genoa by Sea.

LOW COUNTRIES.

Antwerp, July 6, O. S. At the ſame Time that Count Lowendhal is carrying on the Siege of Bergen-op-zoom, the Count de Vaux is going to form the Siege of Lillo, and it's ſaid is ordered to take all the Places on the Right of the Schelt.

Hague, July 9, O. S. They write from Maeſtricht, that 590 Men are every Day employ'd in completing the Entrenchments with the Allies are making at the Mountain of St. Peter, which the Enemy have endeavoured to interrupt, but have been repulſed with Loſs. The ſame Letters ſay it is currently reported, that the French had detached from their Army a Body of 20000 Men to reinforce Count Lowendhal, to enable him to puſh on the Siege of Bergen-op-zoom more vigorouſly. Advices from ſeveral French Ports aſſure, that the Embargo which had been laid there upon all the Dutch Ships was entirely taken off.

The laſt Letters from Paris ſay, that People are under the utmoſt Pain there about a new Regulation of the Coin, that Orders are already come from the King, directing an Augmentation to be made of ſeventy Thouſand Men, excluſive of Recruits, by the Middle of February next; and Directions are to be ſent into all the Provinces without Delay, for the Intendants to prevent young Men from conveying themſelves, or from withdrawing out of the Country.

The AUTHOR and PREPARER of the Medicine for the STONE and GRAVEL,

IS Removed from Macclesfield-Street, St. Anne's, Soho, to the Corner of Hatton-Court, over-againſt Merchant-Taylor's Hall in Threadneedle-Street, behind the Royal Exchange.

Dr. NELSON's moſt wonderful PANACEA for CONFIRM'D VENEREAL LUES.

And all the Relicks or Remains of it in the Blood) which it infallibly eradicates, tho' of ever ſo long ſtanding: it having been long experienc'd to be the only ſafe and ſure Remedy for that hateful Diſtemper, that was ever known or diſcovered.

IT curing ſo eaſily, and inſenſibly, as to any Diſorder it gives Confinement it requires, or Suſpicion it occaſions, that it is admir'd and recommended by all that have taken it, for it neither purges, vomits nor ſalivates, but cures by its alterative, drobſtruent antivenereal Qualities, inſomuch that Children, and the weakeſt and moſt tender or crazy-conſtitution'd People may take it at all Times of the Year, and go about with it as if they had taken nothing, as may likewiſe thoſe, who have been brought near the Grave, by repeated unſucceſsful Salivations, or other violent, or too frequent Purgations, or Vomits; for it reſtores as well as clears the Blood of all the lurking poiſonous Taint and Mercury, tho' never ſo ſecretly lodg'd in the Body; wherefore let none of thoſe unfortunate People deſpair, but try it, and they will be comfortably convinc'd of the Truth of what is here ſaid of it.

Perſons who are pox'd to the laſt Degree, their whole Maſs of Blood being contaminated, and have been told that nothing but a ſalivation would Cure them, tho' they labour under tormenting Pains in the Head, Limbs, or Joints; or have breakings out of Scabs Blotches, Boils, or Spots; or have Swellings, Nodes, Sores, or Ulcers, either in their Throat, Noſe, or elſewhere, with wearineſs in their Limbs, Faintneſs and Weakneſs of the whole Body, &c. may entirely rely upon it, only, that according to the Degree of the Infection, they muſt take it and continue it for a longer or ſhorter Time.

Such as have only ſome Relicks of the Diſeaſe, or but ſuſpect that their Blood has got a Smatch of the Taint by ſome unuſual Uneaſineſſes about them which they now and then feel, either from ill managed Clapt, or other doubtful Cures, ſhould never venture to marry, if they are ſingle, or meddle with their Wives if married till they are ſure they are ſafe, as they moſt certainly will be, upon their only taking a Pot or two of it.

It is alſo exceeding pleaſant to take, as well as delightful in its effects, and thoroughly cleanſes, Nay rather and Reſtores, the moſt ill, moſt weakn'd, and worn-out Conſtitution.

Price 5 s. the Tin-pot, prepar'd only by the Doctor above ſaid and left by him (Mr. Iſted Bookſeller at the Golden Ball in Fleet-ſtreet being dead) with Mr. Corbett, Bookſeller at the Bible's Head oppoſite St. Dunſtan's Church Fleet-ſtreet, and at Mr. Cook's under the Royal Exchange, where it may be had by any Meſſenger, ready ſealed up, with Directions how to take it by only asking for it 5 s. Pot of the Panacea.

The True Cordial QUINTESSENCE of VIPERS, the moſt Noble and Grand Preparation in the whole Materia Medica, for the real, ſubſtantial Cure of Impotency in Men, and Barrenneſs in Women; and is vaſtly preferable to Viper Wine, or any other Preparation of Vipers whatever, it being replete with the full and whole Virtues of them.

A Few Drops of it only, gives ſuch a generous Warmth, and ſo exceedingly delights the Vital and Animal Spirits, Senſes, and Nerves, as ſoon to ſhew what it will do, upon a little Continuance of it; for it not only promotes, and prompts to a Deſire, but alſo furniſhes proper Matter, for the Support and Eſtabliſhment of a true laſting Inclination and Power.

By this Means it anſwers the End as well of Food as Phyſick; nor is there any thing in Nature beſides, that can in that Reſpect come up to it conſidering that it univerſally nouriſhes and reſtores in all the Decenſions of Deſire and Vigour, without the leaſt forcing the Veſſels, or ſtimulating the Parts, as moſt other Medicines for theſe Purpoſes do: And tho' it be a Maxim in Phyſick that SINE CERERE & BACCHO FRIGET VENUS, that is, in effect, it is ſo deficiently nutritious as to want no Aſſiſtance that Way; not but it muſt be allowed, that good Eating and Drinking with its concomitant in ſome Degree, at leaſt as an Auxiliary contribute to its Efficacy.

Nor does it only furniſh Matter and create Deſire, but alſo true Power (as it cleanſes up and corroborates the Veſſels) and gives an elaſtick Springineſs to the Muſcular Erectores Penis in Men, and corrects, cleanſes, and comforts the Uterus, or Womb in Women, the Lankneſs and Laxity of the former, and the Foulneſs, Coldneſs, or Obſtruction of the latter, being more the Cauſe of Impotency or Infertility, in the one Sex, and Indifferency or Sterility in the other than any Thing elſe beſide; and that it is Half magick, and greatly Reſtorative, is confirmed by long Experience, and we have many Inſtances in Phyſical Writings, of Perſons arriving to a healthful old Age, as well as recover'd from deplorable Decays, and Weakneſſes, by a continued Uſe of the common Preparations of Vipers, which this Quinteſſence, by being of vaſtly more Efficacy, brings but in a Quarter of the Time, and with the Tenth Part of the Quantity.

Thoſe who but once try it, will ſo pleaſantly experience its reſtorative quickening Properties, in exhilerating the Heart, reviving the Spirits, comforting the Vitals, circulating the Juices, and recreating and renovating, as it were the whole Man, that they will never be without it; for it is ſuch a preſent Help in Time of Need, as that on the taking then but a Doſe or two more of it than ordinary, it will ſo inſtantaneouſly animate the dull inactive Spirits, and rouze up and actuate the ſluggiſh enfeebled Faculties, in both Sexes, as to excite and capacitate where it could hardly be expected, and at the ſame Time ſeldom fails to render that conjugal Intercourſe Proſperick. Price Half a Guinea the ſmall.

Mr. Weſt, Goldſmith, who us'd to ſell theſe Bottles, being lately dead, it is now Sold only by his Son-in-Law, Mr. Johnſon, a Baker, at the Seven Stars in Vere Street, Clare-Market ſealed up, with Directions (for any Meſſenger) upon asking for only a Bottle of Quinteſſence.

Be eaſily ſhewn an infallible Cure for that reigning Diſeaſe the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived to the higheſt or moſt inveterate Degree, or of ever ſo many Years ſtanding, and that without any ſenſible Evacuation, or the leaſt Purging, which, by an unaccountable Miſtake, is generally adviſed, altho' always found rather to encreaſe and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the ſo much fam'd and moſt Pleaſant Chymical DROPS.

WHICH, without the leaſt Trouble, Confinement, or any Diſorder whatever, do at once ſtrike at the true Cauſe of the Scurvy, and entirely deſtroy it, and all Scorbutick Humors and Effects, Root and Branch, ſo as never to return again, as many Thouſands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them in Three Days Time are convinced; for they almoſt inſtantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, ſweeten all the Fluids, cleanſe them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blotches, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions or Breakings-out, Weakneſs of the Limbs, languid Heavineſs of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakneſs of the Back, and all the vaſt Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies conceal'd under the Appearance of the Rheumatiſm, and many other Diſtempers.

And for ſtrengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, cauſing a regular and eaſy Digeſtion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Diſorders of the firſt Paſſages, (whence proceed Head-Ache, Vapours, and other Indiſpoſitions) no Bitters, nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, inſomuch that beſides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and Appearance, they aſſuredly and directly cure the Green-Sickneſs in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds in Young or Old, and almoſt all other Chronick Diſeaſes (which are chiefly occaſioned by Indigeſtion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illneſſes.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Reſtorative, ſtrengthen and enoble the whole Machine, and as ſoon as taken, make the Patient pleaſantly lightſome, brisk and vigorous to Admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Perſons, to preſerve as well as to procure a ſound and healthful State of Body.

But the great Reputation theſe ſo much fam'd and moſt pleaſant Chymical DROPS have ſo univerſally gain'd among Perſons of Eminence, for their ſuddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humors, and other Chronick Diſeaſes, in ſuch an eaſy and agreeable Manner, have occaſioned many to imitate them, ſome under the ſame, and others under other Names; be careful therefore not to be deceived, but be ſure to have the Right, which by the Author's ſpecial Appointment, are to be had, only at the Gentlewoman's at the two blue Poſts in Haydon Yard in the Minories at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Phyſicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes, whether occaſion'd by too ſevere purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollutio ſui, or any other Cauſe whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Conſequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain ſince they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous Syſtem, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorſalis, or Conſumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Conſumptions which frequently terminate in Death itſelf.

All ſuch therefore who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old ſtubborn Gleets, Seminal Effuſions, Involuntary Emiſſions, exceſſive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakneſs of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetis, Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtleſs be glad to meet with a certain, ſafe and ſpeedy Cure, which they moſt aſſuredly may, by the taking only a ſmall Quantity of a tranſcendent Baliamick Reſtrictive Electuary, now publiſhed for a general Good, after having for many Years in private Practice been experienced never once to fail perfectly curing the moſt ſtubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as alſo all other Weakneſſes of the Back, Reins, Seminal Veſſels and Urinary Paſſages, which it almoſt inſtantly cures, bringing to rights and reſtoring all thoſe Parts and Paſſages to their natural Tone and priſtine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doſes of it only.

This tranſcendent Baliamick Reſtrictive Electuary is neither diſagreeable to take, nor occaſions the leaſt Diſorder, but is a wonderful Reſtorative in all Weakneſs and Decay of Conſtitution of any Kind, and particularly ſtrengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Veſſels, to an immenſe Degree, inſomuch that in any Debility of them, one Doſe of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Perſons fatigued with Gleets or Seminal Weakneſſes of any Sort, or Weakneſſes of the Urinary Veſſels, who take it, will in three Days time find it ſo very effectual, that they will be moſt agreeably ſurpriſed at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accompliſh ſuch a ſafe, ſpeedy and perfect Cure of ſuch difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been try'd in vain; too much cannot be ſaid in Praiſe of it, and this all who ever took it for any of the abovemention'd Purpoſes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6s. a Pot, altho' for its abſolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being ſufficient in moſt Caſes to accompliſh a Cure, worth ten time, as much, and by the Author's ſpecial Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyſhop at the Roſe and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, ready ſealed up, with a Book of Inſtructions, which whomſoever carefully reads will be complete Maſter of his own Caſe, and perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakneſs he is afflicted with ſucceeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the Foul Diſeaſe is entirely extirpated or not. Note, Ask only for a 6s. Pot of Baliamick Electuary. No Letters anſwer'd, unleſs Poſt paid.

ANTI-SIPHYLICON.

THE only ſhort and moſt infallible CURE in the Univerſe for the Venereal Diſeaſe from the ſlighteſt Infection to the moſt extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Freſh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever ſo ſevere, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and ſo as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks, on one Hand, or a ſeminal Gleet, or Weakneſs, to happen on the other.

And the moſt inveterate Degree of the French Illneſs, attended with nocturnal Pains, univerſal Breakings-out, and all other the moſt exaſperated Symptoms, are ſoon overcome by it, and effectually and much more ſafely cured than by Salivation, Inungation, or any other Method whatever, and in ſo eaſy and pleaſant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occaſioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to beſpeak it the only appoſite Remedy, or true Venereal Antidote in the World, and this ſome Thouſands have, to their great Joy, experienced.

It is pleaſant to take, occaſions no Sickneſs or Diſorder, nor requires Confinement, but may be taken, and the Cure be accompliſhed, without the Knowledge of the neareſt Friend.

Thoſe who ſuſpect they have received an Injury may, by only a Doſe or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehenſions; for it ſuffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it, Root and Branch, in a gentle, eaſy, and moſt effectual Manner.

All ſuch, likewiſe, as doubt they have ſome remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may, by a few Doſes of it, entirely free themſelves from all Suſpicions of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulneſs, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and, on that Account, in all Scorbutick, Scrophulous, and even Leprous Eruptions, or Foulneſſes of the Skin, or glandulous Swellings, and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Doſe than any other Medicine, yet known, can by ten.

The Price of this moſt noble Anti-Siphylicon is but ſix Shillings a Pot, which, conſidering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being ſufficient, in moſt Caſes, to accompliſh the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toy-ſhop, at the Roſe and Crown, againſt St. Clement's Church-yard, in the Strand, ready ſealed up, with a Book of Inſtructions, by the Peruſal of which all Perſons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Diſeaſe may perfectly underſtand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poiſon is entirely rooted out of their Bodies. Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy. No Letters anſwer'd, unleſs Poſt-paid.

The So-much Fam'd HYPO-DROPS.

WHICH in a few Days infallibly cure Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Vapours in Women, ſo as never to return again, be they ever ſo ſevere, or of many Years ſtanding, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual, and that by immediately ſtriking at the very Root or true Cauſe, as well as remedying the Effects, of thoſe perplexing Maladies and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they mimick, by Turns, almoſt all the Diſeaſes poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Riſe from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigeſtion of Food, whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Diſorders in the firſt Paſſages, ill Fumes, ſour Belchings, Cholick, and Uneaſineſs in the Bowels; which Crudities offend the Nerves, and, by Conſent of Parts, affect the Head, and produce ſometimes Giddineſs, Dimneſs of Sight, confuſed Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, troubleſome Sleep, Frights, groundleſs Fears, and the deepeſt Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehenſions; at other times, Fits, flufhing Heats, Reachings, Faintneſs, Lowneſs and Sinking of Spirit, and Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Tremblings and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulſive Diſorders, ſharp Pains, fix'd or wandering, Pain and Weakneſs in the Back and other, almoſt innumerable and grievous, Symptoms, which miſerably afflict vaſt Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms in their ſharpeſt Paroxyſms, theſe ſomuch fam'd and moſt pleaſant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the moſt valuable Specificks in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the higheſt Degree of Perfection poſſible) inſtantly quell, and at the ſame time annihilate their real Cauſe, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, rectifying the Digeſtion, occaſioning laudable Chyle, and, of courſe, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and chearful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves ſo that both Cauſe and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours, are thoroughly removed by them, almoſt on the Spot, as the many Thouſands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured, evince.

Whoever takes them for three Days only, will be ſenſible they are abſolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and laſting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Croſs-Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions, at large.

TINCTURA MIRIFICA;

Or, The admirable Tincture, which infallibly cures the Stone and Gravel, whether in the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, and alſo the Strangury, Stoppage of Urine, and all Heat, Pain, and Difficulty of making Water.

A FEW Drops of it momentarily take off the moſt excruciating Pains in the Reins or Bladder, and certainly prevent their Return; for it abſolutely cures the Stone and Gravel in an extraordinary Manner, it inſtantly removes all Uneaſineſs or Difficulty in making Water, heals all Excoriations, and even Ulcers of the Urinary Paſſages, relaxes the Ureters, ſo that ſmall Stones, together with Gravel, and all mucous, ſlimy, obſtructing Matter may paſs freely from the Kidneys, to be voided viſibly with Urine, without Pain; effectually cleanſes the Reins, Ureters, and Bladder from all Impurities, entirely prevents the Stone in thoſe who are troubled with the Gravel only, aſſuredly diſſolves all large Stones poſſible to be diſſolved, and likewiſe brings all the Urinary Parts and Paſſages to their due Tone and Vigour, ſo as perfectly to free the Patient from all the terrible Symptoms and miſerable Effects of that torturing Diſeaſe.

It is the ſafeſt Medicine in the World, and not diſagreeable to take. The very firſt Doſe of it abſolutely cures the moſt dreadful Fit of either Stone or Gravel in a Minute, giving ſuch wonderful Relief and perfect Eaſe, as is indeed very ſurprizing, and this great Numbers of Perſons of Worth have experienced to their infinite Satisfaction. It is to be had only at Mr Radford's Toyſhop, at the Roſe and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle; with Directions.

To Perſons of either Sex,

Afflicted with any Species of the PALSY, or other Nervous Decays.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES, PALSIES, and PARALYTICK DISORDERS ſo frequent as of late they have been, nor have the uſual Remedies been found adequate to thoſe pertinacious Diſtempers: This occaſioned a Phyſician, who employ'd his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palſy, and all other Nervous Complaints now reigning, which, after he had experienced on vaſt Numbers of Perſons of both Sexes, and always with ſurprizing Succeſs even ſo as infallibly to cure by it the Palſy, and all Paralytick and Nervous Diſorders, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that ſo thoſe labouring under theſe miſerable Ailments might know where to meet with a ſafe and moſt certain Cure, which it accompliſhes in ſo ſhort a Time, and with ſuch Eaſe and Pleaſure (a few Drops of it being a Doſe, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels) as is almoſt incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only demonſtrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients ſoon finds all Numbneſs, Deadneſs, and ſhaking, or Reſolution of the Nerves, as well as all convulſive, cramp-like, or painful Contractions of them, vaniſh and return no more, and this, though theſe Diſeaſes have been of many Years ſtanding, and whe her occaſioned by long Illneſs, faſt Living, hard drinking, or any other Cauſe; for it performs all that can be wiſh'd for in Nervous Caſes, creates an Appetite, expells Wind, rectifies the Digeſtion, occaſions laudable Chyle, attenuates the Blood and Juices, cauſes a free and regular Circulation of 'em thro' the Capiliary Veſſels, revives and increaſes the Spirits, warms comforts, ſtrengthens, and replenifhes the Brain and whole Nervous Syſtem, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs reſtored to their priſtine Steadineſs and Strength, and the Palſy and all Paralitick Diſorders and Nervous Decays ſuddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themſelves, and all about them.

This ſovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be ſold only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Croſs Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, London, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.
